Party under the Agreement, any transaction or any other agreement between the parties (whether or not yet due) and set-off against such withheld amounts any amounts owed the Non-Defaulting Party hereunder (whether or not yet due). 10. Set-Off:

Upon an Event of Default, the Non-Defaulting Party may, at its sole discretion and without limitation to any other rights or remedies available to it, set-off its, or any of its affiliates', payment obligation to the Defaulting Party against the Defaulting Party's payment obligations to the Non-Defaulting Party, or to any of its affiliates, whether any of the foregoing obligations arise under this Agreement or any other agreement between the parties.

11. Force Majeure:

Except with regard to a party's obligation to make payment due under this Agreement, neither party shall be liable to the other for failure to perform to the extent such performance is prevented by force majeure. "Force Majeure" means an event or circumstance which prevents the claiming party from performing its obligations under one or more transactions, which event or circumstance was not anticipated as of the date the transaction was agreed to, which is not within the reasonable control of the claiming party, and which, by the exercise of due diligence, the claiming party was unable to overcome or avoid or cause to be avoided. Neither party shall be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of the aforementioned clause to the extent performance is affected by any or all of the following circumstances: (i) the claiming party having failed to avoid the adverse implications, or to remedy the condition in accordance and to resume the performance of such covenants or obligations with reasonable dispatch, or to provide timely notification; (ii) economic hardship, including, without limitation, lack of finances, Seller's ability to sell the Product at a higher or more advantageous price than the agreement price, Buyer's ability to purchase Product at a lower or more advantageous price than the agreement price; or (iii) scheduled maintenance by a transporter or storage operator, provided that notice of such scheduled maintenance has been provided by such transporter or storage operator at or prior to the time the parties entered into the transaction.
